

In any professional endeavor you'll find a select few who stand out from the rest. . . the leaders, the achievers, those who excel. The Texas Association of Real Estate Inspectors (TAREI) is a state trade association comprised of real estate inspectors and those interested in the profession who are dedicated to applying higher standards to every aspect of their businesses. As a TAREI member, you will benefit from the competitive edge offered by your peers in the real estate inspection industry.

TAREI is dedicated to exerting a beneficial influence upon the real estate industry by uniting those in, or interested in the profession to provide a strong voice in matters affecting the inspection industry and promoting and maintaining high standards of conduct in the profession as expressed in the TAREI Code of Ethics.
